CLUE TO IDENTITY MAY LIE IN ENGLAND

Manchester Police Answer Inquiry About "Sir Frederick Gray."

HELD IN CAPITAL. SWINDLE CHARGED

British Authorities Declare Person He Claims to Be Is Unknown to Alleged Employes.

Manchester, England, may hold the key to the identity of the mysterious Sir Frederick Gray, lately known as enor Fredrico R. Gray, of Mexico City, held here under $2,000 bond for the action of the grand jury.

Gray was arrested here about ten days ago on the complaint of two young men, Elmon Geneste and George Allen Henderson. They both de-clared that they had answered an advertisement inserted by him for a secretary, to take charge of Mexican mining interests. He gave each of them the single position, they assert, and required them to make a cash de-posit of $500. Because Henderson had put up the money, he caused the man's arrest on a charge of obtaining money on false pretenses.

Police Record Received. From Chief Constable Robert Peacock, of Manchester, England, the police have received a record which they believe is that of the man they hold here. When arrested Gray had cards purporting to identify Richard Musgrave, representing the Musgrave Ltd. Company of Manchester, England. The report from the constable

"I beg to report with reference to the cablegram from Superintendent Sylves-ter, police, Washington, D. C., that the above named, who claims to be and has cards as Richard Musgrave, representing Musgrave Ltd., Manchester, the only limited company of that name is Musgrave & Co., Ltd., 40 Deansgate, Man-chester, and they neither know Gray nor anyone named Richard F. Musgrave, representing them; in fact no 'Musgrave' has been in that firm for the last twenty-five years.

Musgrave In Unknown.

"I have also made inquiries from Frederick Ralph Musgrave, broker, 19 and 20 Exchange Building, St. Marysgate, and William A. Musgrove, steel and metal merchant, Bridge street, city, but the above named is unknown to

"In all probability, Frederick Gray is identical with Frederick Grey, sentenced at Manchester assizes April 7, 1902, to twelve, twelve, and twelve months, con current, for embezzlement and forgery also at the Manchester assizes Novem ber 9, 1903, as Charles Frederick Grey, sentenced to twelve and twelve months concurrent, for bigamy and fraud also at the Manchester assizes, January 23, 1905, as Charles Frederick Gray, sen-tenced to five years penal servitude for forgery.

*Description: Born, 1876, five feet eight and one-quarter inches tall, pale complexion, brown hair and blue eyes, mole right side of neck, walks lame and mill manager by occupation."

It is expected that further communication with the Manchester police will be held by the Washington authorities in an attempt to establish Gray's identity.

belle, who will appear at the New Nathon appear at the New Nathon will open an extens have with appear at the New Nathon will open and the need at the new Nathon will open at the new Nathon wil

BUILDING SHOW ON IN ST. LOUIS

Exhibits Comprise Model Houses With All the Latest Appliances.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 24.-A real estate and building show, something unique in the way of exhibitions in this country, opened in St. Louis today and continue for one week.

est of the prospective purchaser of homes and other classes of real estate. The chief exhibits consist of model houses, showing the latest appliances in heating, drainage, decoration, inter-tor finish, furnishings, and all other details that go to make up a model home or apartment.

ONLY NEWEST FILMS AT VIRGINIA THEATER

Announcement Is Made By Management That There Will Be

No "Repeaters."

A new departure that promises a treat to the patrons of the Virginia Theater, 608 Ninth street northwest, is advertised the management.

Beginning today this house will ex

Beginning today this house will exhibit daily three high-class pictures from the leading film manufacturers never before shown in a Washington moving picture parlor.

It is announced that there will be no "repeaters" at this place of amusement. An arrangement has been perfected between the management of the Virginia and the film manufacturers which will enable the former to show their pictures on the day of their release by the manu-

Orchestral music will be an added at-traction at each performance.

PAW-PAW LIVER PILLS

Thinks Objection to Stage Is Passing

FLORA ZABELLE, In "Up and Down Broadv ay."

Position of Stage Folk Innovation In Seat Buying Changed for Better, Says Flora Zabelle.

"Never in the history of the American by telephone will hereafter be a reguwomen of good families being educated for the stage as today."

This statement was made by Flore Zafor the stage as today."

for the stage as today."

This statement was made by Flora Zabelle, who will appear at the New National this week with her husband, Raymond Hitchcock, in "The Man Who by telephoning their orders to the box of the layer the seats delivered immediate.

Iumbia Theater.

This innovation will go into effect at once. Under its operation persons desiring seats for any performance may, by telephoning their orders to the box of the layer the seats delivered immediate.

have had aspirations.

"When I first informed my father that I had a desire to go on the stage he threw up his hands and tried to make me think what I would be giving up," the actress said.

"When I salading, though sale had seen laid away, or believe that had been laid away on orders that never materialized, the Columbia management found it expedient last season to do away with the reservation of seals on telephone.

When I told him I would not be hap- reservation of seats on telephone "When I told him I would not be happy unless I took up this work he releated, but still clung to the theory that a stage career meant social octracism. "Now that has all changed. The old-time objection against the stage as a profession is fast dying away. The progression is fast dying away. The profession of an actor has grown to be an honorable calling. The tone of our theaters is higher and there has come glowly a complete reconciliation between the complete reconciliation between the complete reconciliation between the complete reconciliation between the control of t longest unbroken run ever recorded by a comedy in New York.

The run has continued without break since the night of the first production of the play. The occasion on Saturday night was observed on the part of Wagenhals and Kemper, the managers, by gifts to the members of the company and a note of thanks for the share each had contributed to the success of the comedy. Mary Roberts Rinehart, one of the authors of "Seven Days," sent a cable message from London, while Avery Hopwood was present in the theater.

"Just Say" HORLICK'S

It Means Original and Genuine

MALTED MILK

The Food-Drink for All Ages More healthful than Tea or Coffee. Agrees with the weakest digestion. Delicious, invigorating and nutritious. Rich milk, malted grain, powder form.

A quick lunch prepared in a minute. Take no substitute. Ask for HORLICK'S. Others are imitations.

 Your ceiling and wall decorations will last longer if you use

ELECTRIC LIGHT

IT IS PERFECTLY CLEAN. Potomac Electric Power Co., 213 Fourteenth Street Northwest. Telephone, Main 7260.

L'HOMME SANS FIGURE

(THE MAN WITHOUT A FACE)

father and presses her lips to his scarred face.

in the supposed madman, Z., who had so badly frightened Evelyne, Barrabas recognizes his son, Polydore.

Polydore tells his father it was his mad love for Lucie Weil that caused him to kill his mother.

Kingsley tells Barrabas he must prepare to go to America before the marriage of William and Evelyne. "The Man Without a Face," secure in the knowledge of his own power, bids his erstwhile master defiance. Marcadian, meanwhile, has manifested a desire to break off the marriage. Barrabas visits Marcadian and Evelyne, and by agreeing to make the mad patient, really his son, Polydore, his special care, induces them to withdraw their objections to Evelyne's marriage to William Duncan.

Kingsley tells Barrabas he must sail imnons to Evelyne's marriage to William Duncan.

Kingsley tells Barrabas he must sail immediately for America, and before going must adopt a son. "The Man Without a Face" rebels, but knows he must obey. His thoughts turn to Polydore.

Barrabas and Polydore sail for America with Addison Kingsley. Evelyne and her fiance wave them farewell.

On the way over Lucie-Weil, supposed to have been murdered, and the Hindoo, says he loves Lucie and has hidden her away at Kingsley's orders. Polydore shows his old infatuation for the girl.

Addison Kingsley tells his partner he has planned to have Polydore, now adopted as Theodore Douglass, marry Lucie Weil. He reveals this as a part of his revenge against William Kingsley.

CHAPTER XXI. Lucie's Vanity.

UCIE was the millionaire's pro LUCIE was the millionaire's protegee. In his luxurious home, amidst the glittering display of wealth, by a sort of frony of fate, she reigned as a queen, one might say. She had a certain grace and charm, and seemed quite at her ease in Kingsleys mansion. The sumptious surroundings were a fitting frame for her undeniable beauty. She did not seem at all astonished at her immense good fortune. She accepted it with the same ladifference that she had shown when she had been held in seclusion in the house at Neuflly. She took everything as it came. Her approaching near mentions have given be took great pleasure in treating meas an elderly man of no consequence, and one day when we were alone she played a little part that I was not expecting.

"Charles," she said, "there is a delicate matter upon which I should like to consult you."

She rang for her maid.

"Bring me those boxes you placed in my room this morning," she said.

"Bring me those boxes you placed in my room this morning," she said.

"Bring me those boxes you placed in my room this morning," she said.

The boxes contained the trouseau that had been ordered for her when I was to have married her at Neuilly.

She unfolded the white bridal gown carefully, shook the shimmering silk, who have married her at Neuilly.

She unfolded the white bridal gown carefully, shook the shimmering silk, who have married her at Neuilly.

She unfolded the white bridal gown carefully, shook the shimmering silk, and the more and more

Planned By Columbia

Theater.

cate matter upon which I should like to consult you."

She rang for her maid.
"Bring me those boxes you placed in my room this morning," she said,
The boxes contained the trousseau that had been ordered for her when I was to have married her at Neuilly.
She unfolded the white bridal gown carefully, shook the shimmering silk, and said in a voice that was almost reverent:

reverent:
"Isn't it beautiful? Exquisite? You can understand how I like it. I was obliged to bring it with me. I could not

For a moment I had nothing to say. I was on the point of bursting out laughing, and-yet I had a feeling of sadness. She at once put my silence down to regrets, for she said, quickly:

"Oh! Charles, then you did really love me, after all."

"That I did not," I said, indignantly. Kingsley came in at that moment, and, taking me familiarly by the arm, drew me into the smoking-room."

"What is she bringing that bridal dress out for?" he said, laughing. "To bring back the past and make you regret, I suppose."

I laughed.

"It is possible," I said.

WASHBURN-CROSBY'S

GOLD MEDAL

FLOUR

By ALBERT BOISSIERE

Translated from the French by Florence Crewe-Jones.

PASSED a whole year in the factories at Holyoke, working like a machine. worked fourteen hours & day. It was The Continuation of This Story Will only in this way that I was able in some way to forget the past.

I heard regularly from Paris, Marcadian's letters were friendly in the extreme; the doctor's full of a filial affection, and Evelyne's, to my great regret, were the shortest and only spoke about Z profession is fast dying away. The profession of an actor has grown to be an honorable calling. The tone of our theaters is higher and there has come the church and the stage."

"SEVEN DAYS" SETS

NEW RECORD RUN

Comedy Reaches Four Hundredth

Performance in New York—Occasion Is Celebrated.

"New York, Oct. 24—"Seven Days" has reached its four hundredth consecutive performance in what is the longest unbroken run ever recorded by a comedy in New York.

The run has continued without break since the night of the first production of the play. The occasion on Saturday inght was observed on the part of Wagethias and contributed to the suscess of the comedy. Amy Roberts Rine
Set the comedy in the work was a second concert will take place of the play. The occasion on Saturday inght was observed on the part of Wagethias and contributed to the suscess of the company and a not contributed to the su

Synopsis of Chapters Already Published

Barrabas, a sculptor, returns to his home to find his wife murdered, his daughter, Evelyne, unconscious, and his son, Folyabre, a youth of twestry, gibbert his daughter, Evelyne, unconscious, and his son, Folyabre, a youth of twestry, gibbert his daughter, Evelyne, unconscious, and his son, Folyabre, a youth of twestry, gibbert his daughter, Evelyne, unconscious, and his son, Folyabre, a youth of twestry, gibbert his daughter, Evelyne, unconscious, and his son, Folyabre, a youth of twestry, gibbert his daughter, Evelyne, unconscious, and his son, Folyabre, a youth of twestry, gibbert his daughter, Evelyne, unconscious, and his son, Folyabre, a youth of twestry, gibbert his son, Folyabre, and the father writes a letter to the dead woman's brother, taking the father writes a letter to the dead woman's brother, taking the father writes a letter to the dead woman's brother, taking the father writes a letter to the dead woman's brother, taking the father writes a letter to the dead woman's brother, taking the father writes a letter to the dead woman's brother, taking the father writes a letter to the dead woman's brother, taking the father writes a letter to the father writes a letter writes a letter to the father writes a letter writes

Her beautiful eyes have wrecked your life, and I am afraid have made are readed have; than we think with Dr. Kingsley's.

Polydore looked at me, and then said, in a slow, deep voice.

"I am certain now that she does not care for me any more than; she cared for William Kingsley. There is conly one thing she loves in the world—that is money, or, rather, the brilliant life that money can procure. That is her only passion."

"I found out that long ago," I replied. "Lucle is, a beautiful wonnan without a soul, and her power of fascination is so much the more because she is honest. She is like a beautiful light—she attracts the moths, and they singe their wings, but it does not hurt her."

"So be it. I'll scorch my wings...! Polydore's abjectness was pitiful." Think," I said, after a silence, "that from a man like you and a schemer like, Lucie the worst is to be feared. Your passion, has no excuse and her influence over you no limit, I think that Mr. Kingsley has made the biggest mistake of his life in bringing about this match. I have decided to leave town tomorrow. You can get married without me. Adicu, my son."

And I got up and left him.

CHAPTER XXII.

Kingsley Is Despondent.

I PASSED a whole year in the factories at Holyoke, working like a machine. I worked fourteen hours a day. It was only in this way fast I was able in some.

Be Found In Tomorrow's Issue of The Times.

and a single cake of Cuticura Soap when I was cured, the eczema and dandruff were gone and my head perfectly clear.

"I can assure you that ce long as I live no other soap than Cuticura will be the knows that she is now married."

Were gone and my head perfectly clear.

"I can assure you that ce long as I live no other soap than Cuticura will be used by me and all those near to me. were gone and my head perfectly clear. to cure and if you desire you may use this to as a true testimonial which comes from as sufferer of thirty years' standing. I will be happy to tell any one of my experience in redector standing to the standing of the stand perience in order to assist those who may be suffering from the same disease. J. Acevedo, General Commission Merchant, 59 Pearl St., New York, Apr. 21, 1910." Cuticura Remedies afford the most economical had it called a serious about the most economical treatment for affections of the skin and sealp. A cake of Cuticura Soap (25c.) and a box of Cuticura Sillent ddenly ts. He had been serious the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Pross. 135 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass. As Mailed free, 32-page book, an Authority on the Care and Treatment of the Skin, Scalp and Hair.

AMUSEMENTS

EXCURSIONS

OFFICIAL ROUTE TO PIMLICORACETRACK BALTIMORE, MD.

Racing October 15 to 31, Inclusive Tickets good to return until Oct. 31, including admission to track. $2.00

Trains on the hour and half hour and frequent specials. Direct street car connections in Ealtimore to track. Washington, Baltimore, and Annapolis Electric Railway Company 1424 New York Ave.

NORFOLK & WASHINGTON STEAMBOAT CO. Modern Steel Palace Steamers. Old Point Comfort-Norfolk And All Points South.

Leave Washington Daily 6:45 P. M.
City Ticket Office: Bond Building, New York Ave, and 14th St.

AUTUMN RESORTS

Atlantic City.

Hotel and Sanitarium Atlantic N. J. Owing to our Tonic and Curative Batha, our Elegant Comfort and Exceptional Table and Service, we are always busy.

F. L. YOUNG, General Manager, Information—Mr. Foster, opposite Willard Hetel. AMUSEMENTS

NATIONAL Tonight at 8:15. Wed. & Sat. Mats. Mat. Wed.

Raymond Hitchcock

THE MAN WHO OWNS BROADWAY LMENDORF

Thursday, VIENNA
4:30 P. M.,
"Budapest-Salzburg Konigs-See"
PRICES, 50c, 75c, and 81.00.
NOW ON SALI SEATS, ALL LECTURES, NOW ON SALE Next Week-Wed. & Sat. Mats.-Seats

ANTI-MATRIMONY ACADEMY Mats. Tues.,

MR. THOMAS E. SHEA

A SELF-MADE MAN Tues, & Thurs, Evgs, & Sat THE BELLS

DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE

Sidney R. Ellis' Modern Song Play,

Story of the Industrial World, with FRANK ADAIR, Premier Irish Baryton

BELASCO Tonight

Wed. 250 to $1 Sat. Mat., 50c to $1.50 Mat. 250 to $1

"HAVANA" Two Seasons at The Casino, N. Y

All This Week. Matinees Daily. SAM HOWE'S

LOVE MAKERS A Laughing Tornado See the Dance of the JU JU GIRLS. Next Week-Crusoe Girls

SAM T. JACK COMPANY

ELMER COLLINS. World's Champion Paced Cyclist Next Week-LADY BUCCANEERS.

ENGLISH, IRISH, DUTCH AND YANKEE FAIRIES

Carnival, Universalist Festival and Fair, Old. Masonic Temple, 9th and F sts., October 31. 1919. Other attractions three following nights

Boston Symphony Orchestra

MAX FIEDLER, Conductor. Season of Five Concerts, 1910-1911. Tuesday Afternoons, Nov. 8, Dec. 6, Jan. 10, Feb. 21, March 21. NATIONAL THEATER, 4:30.

Soloists: MISS MARGARET KEYES. JOSEPH HOFMANN, MISCHA ELMAN, ALWIN SCHROEDER, MME. JOMELLI. Season tickets, $10.00, $7.50, $5.00, $3.75. Seats now on sale at Droop's Music Stor 13th and G sts. oc19-11t

Washington HORSE SHOW

AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK, October 25-26 Black Horse Cavalry Drill, High Jumping. ic. Admission, 50c.

COSMOS Continuous

Kashima, the Human Billiard Table. Ballo Bros., Mexican Serenaders. The Blakes. Comedy Roller Skating. Clarine Moore-Singing Specialties. The Four Saxolians, Novelty Musicians. COMPLETE CHANGE THURSDAYS.

CASINO THE BEST VAUDEVILLE SHOW IN TOWN

MATINEES-1,000 SEATS-100 THEARCADE 14th St. and Morning and afternoon ses-sions, 25c. Evenings, 25c. Cou-ple's ticket, 50c.

DANCING 8:30 to 11:29 p. m. Admission, 25c. Special rates for clubs, Mrs. Mattingly's dancing class (individual instruction), 7:20 to 8:30, 25c per lesson.

OTHER ATTRACTIONS. MOVING PICTURES

Each Show